About M360 LATAM

As Latin America's industries and societies change at an unprecedented speed, our connected ecosystem needs a place to meet, debate tech developments and see a 360° perspective of the opportunities and challenges.

Taking place in Mexico City, M360 LATAM is that place – convening everyone from telcos and industry verticals to investors and senior policy makers. All with a shared drive to accelerate regional transformation and unlock its global potential.

2026 topics:

The conference agenda will focus on three key topics, reflecting the current technology trends in the region and the world:

- AI Evolution
- Next-Gen Connectivity
- 5G – Use Cases for Growth
- Cybersecurity
- Digital Citizen

In Latin America's new stage of maturity, 5G is scaling, AI is becoming embedded into networks and services and the investment decisions made today will define tomorrow's competitiveness. From AI-powered networks and next-generation connectivity strategies to cybersecurity, data infrastructure and digital skills, discussions will focus on scaling solutions that deliver tangible economic and social value.
